Newly Baptized in Christ at Saint Martin Parish was Darla Mae Sagan, daughter of Jake & Stephanie Sagan.

Can you believe it's June already? May came by so fast with many activities and celebrations. In May we celebrated two First Communions, two beautiful May Crowning's in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary and one infant Baptism, not to mention the glorious feast of the Ascension and Pentecost Sunday.

I want to Thank Kristin Kozar, our Director of Faith Formation and all the catechists and volunteers of our Partner Parishes who helped with our Religious Education Programs this past year. We had a wonderful year with our children growing stronger in their understanding of the faith. Thank you to everyone involved with this year's faith formation programs.

I want to offer our congratulations to all of our graduates and to assure them of our continued prayers for a future full of promise, hope, and joy. May God, Who began the good work in them, guide them along the right path in order to bring them success and much happiness. Graduating Seniors from our Partner Parishes for the Class of 2023 are Patrick Laughlin and Sophia Parillo.

Most Holy Trinity: 2023

This Sunday is the celebration of the Most Holy Trinity, which is one of the fundamental beliefs of the Catholic Church. The doctrine states that there are three persons in one God (expressed in Greek as hypostasis), namely, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The three co-exist in absolute harmonious relationship, sharing one nature (essence). The unity of the three persons is often designated in scholarly circles as "hypostatic union."

Many have tried in vain to dissect the nature of the divine relationship between the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and have failed because we are dealing with mystery. It is important to remember that the doctrine of the Holy Trinity is not a proposition to be broken down, but a mystery to be lived. The much we know about the Trinity came through revelation in Christ.

Christian faith in the Trinity is often designated as "Trinitarianism," in contrast to Unitarianism – a belief in one God and one Person (not to be confused with Monotheism – belief in one God, which is a fundamental part of our Christian faith). Unitarianism itself is in contrast to Binitarianism – a belief in one God and two persons. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints views the Trinity as three divine persons with three separate natures (as opposed to one nature), sharing one purpose.

The harmonious relationship of the Trinity is a model for Christian relationships. We should strive to live in harmony with our neighbors since we were all created in the image and likeness of God. Harmonious relationship is more than tolerating others. It involves loving everyone unconditionally since we were all created in the image of God. It also involves a willingness to understand that no one is perfect, including you.

May Jesus Christ be praised!
Fr. Sam
